

I use satellite radio as a staple of my listening. Even though I live in a metropolitan area the reception is unreliable for both AM and FM stations. Only satellite radio provides reliable reception. Please support satellite radio and the significant value that it brings to the public.